MAVERICK GUIDE TO BALI AND JAVA: 2nd Edition

Description Reviews

The Indonesian islands of Bali and Java offer the traveler a scenic panorama of plantation-covered rugged mountains, sandy beaches, bountiful coral reefs, and even live volcanoes. This exquisite mix with the colorful presence of the Balinese and Javanese people themselves, creates an island that draws visitors back time and time again.

In this updated edition author Don Turner guides you through these two exotic islands whose history goes back 35,000 years to the earliest known example of Homo sapiens. Turner covers the geography comprehensively, taking the traveler through the cities, towns, and resorts of Bali and Java. In Bali, he covers Denpasar, Bali's main town, Ubud and Peliatan, the centers of Balinese arts, and the variety of life on the island. In Java, a land of ancient temples and volcanoes, Turner takes the traveler through east Java, introducing the city of Surabaya, Jakarta, the capital city, and the Highlands of Malang and Mt. Etna. The intricacies of Indonesian society are explained plainly and simply to ensure a carefree and fun vacation experience.

Don Turner resides in Western Australia and holds a degree in Asian Studies from Curtin University. He worked in Bali and Java for five years and has traveled extensively throughout Indonesia since 1990. He is the author of Bali and Java: The Pocket Guide and Perth and Fremantle: The Pocket Guide.
